Reward Offer in the Murder of Juan Manuel Vidal.

Sheriff's Homicide Bureau investigators were called out to assist El Monte Police Department with the investigation surrounding the shooting death of Juan Manuel Vidal.

Juan was working towards becoming a pharmacist tech and was recently engaged to be married. His dreams were snapped away when he was shot and killed late Friday evening, on October 21, 2016, in El Monte, while working at a Jack in the Box restaurant located in a strip mall at the 9200 Block of Flair Drive.

Juan and a fellow employee of the restaurant were held at gun point by an adult male who used a Halloween mask and a baseball cap as a disguise. The suspect demanded Juan hand over the restaurant's money, and shot Juan once in the upper torso. The suspect jumped over the counter of the Jack in the Box, and fled the scene, running north onto Flair Drive, where his getaway vehicle was waiting for him. Detectives believe a second suspect drove the getaway vehicle, fleeing at a high rate of speed, traveling east on Flair Drive from the crime scene.

In hopes of encouraging witnesses to come forward, Detectives Adan Torres and Gustavo Carrillo, released a portion of the surveillance video from the Jack in the Box restaurant, showing the suspect who shot and killed Juan.

To this date no clues, or witnesses have come forward with any information related to this murder.
